The Tactical Hapkido Alliance 1st Ever Training Conference coming up! October 22, 2010 - October 24, 2010

The Tactical Hapkido Alliance is going to have our first ever training conference in October.

This special three (3) day event is open to all martial artists and school owners.

This is NOT a seminar, it IS a conference. As a conference structure the amount of personal training you will experience in the Tactical Hapkido system will be far superior to anything you would have experience before.

Nothing will be held back, and Grandmaster Rodemaker will open up the entire core techniques to expose ALL the details NOT included in the videos, encyclopedia, OR the training manuals.

In addition, martial artist school owners will receive in-depth training in marketing tactics, operational advice, and how to expand your student enrollment.

We selected this central location that is right down the street from the largest indoor water park east of the Mississippi River! In addition to the water park there are a whole bunch of things everyone can do in this area.

So take advantage of this event where not only the martial artists can enjoy the seminars but the kids and your family can have a wonderful time also.

We have at least 7 states being represented at this event!

At this event we are going to release a new program that every charter and instructor can take advantage of for expanding their youth outreach program.

SPECIAL NOTE: ALL THA products will be deeply discounted for those who attend the event. This also includes the Encyclopedia which we be sold only for $85.00 ($40.00 savings). Encyclopedias will be autographed for those who purchase one there.
